Case Reference: BN-2026-001

Full Name: Isabella Nguyen (known as Bella)

Date of Birth: 15 March 2007 | Age: 19 years old

Current Status: First-year Law student, UNSW · commencing Semester 2, 2026

EDUCATION HISTORY

Bella recently completed her HSC at Blacktown Girls High School in 2025, achieving an ATAR of 93.5 which secured her admission into the UNSW combined Law/Arts program. She completed 8 years at Blacktown Girls High School (Years 7 through 12 plus two elective years), graduating as School Captain.

Starting from Semester 2, 2026 · commencing tomorrow · Bella will formally begin her university studies. She has received credit for two units from the UNSW Online Early Entry program, placing her at a Year 2 equivalent level.

CURRENT CIRCUMSTANCES

Bella is a first-generation university student. Her parents are Vietnamese immigrants who operate a small grocery business in Blacktown. She commutes daily to UNSW Kensington campus. Prior to this matter, Bella had no prior contact with the criminal justice system whatsoever.

She has maintained a part-time job at a local supermarket for two years, working Friday evenings and Saturday mornings.

IMPACT OF PROCEEDINGS ON UNIVERSITY ENROLMENT

The current bail conditions · nightly curfew and reporting to Blacktown Police Station three times per week · pose a direct risk to Bellas university enrolment. UNSW Law tutorials run Thursday evenings until 8:30 PM, conflicting directly with the reporting schedule.

Bella respectfully submits that modified bail conditions permitting attendance at scheduled university classes would allow her to maintain enrolment.

CHARACTER REFERENCES

Written references from Principal Ms Robyn Clarke and Year 12 coordinator Mr David Park attest to Bellas character, diligence and community involvement.
